Strategies for Making Career Transition
a Rewarding Reality

Strategies for Making Career Transition a Rewarding Reality

If you're contemplating a career change, re-entering the work force after a prolonged absence, or trying to take your current business to a new level, don't miss this seminar developed especially for women. Sponsored by Options Unlimited, LLC, a consulting firm specializing in career development services to adults looking to transition into a more meaningful and rewarding career, the seminar will be led by Founder and President, Dr. Malva Daniel Reid.

This Workshop Will Explore Strategies For:

- Making the decision to make a change
- Identifying and removing your obstacles
- Developing your individual profile
- Identifying your next step - new career area, enhancing your present or starting your own business
- Using your resources - experiences, contacts, talents, and interests
- Staying focused to move forward
